Let X be locally path connected. Show that every connected open set in X is path connected

Let C be connected open set in X.

$x \in C$, P - path components, Q not path components $\rightarrow$ both are open

$C = P \sqcup Q \rightarrow$ both closed. This contradicts C being connected